The Event

9th-12th Grade Only!

Experience a weekend of transformation, growth, and fun!

The Event exists to challenge high school students to pursue a life on mission with God and to encourage and equip those who minister to youth. This event is designed for high school groups to attend with youth sponsors, engaging with God's Word through worship services, small-group discussion, and elective classes. The goal is to get high school students to consider training for Christian service in the future.
